ABOUT AP IMAGES FROM ACCUWEATHER™

AP Images from AccuWeather™ is a research tool that allows learners of all ages and areas of interest to search databases that will take them on a sensory journey using photographs, audio, graphics and text spanning over 160 years of history. Users have access to the Archive 24 hours a day, seven days a week, using any computer with web-browsing capabilities.

From simple keyword searching to more complex searches such as concept, color, and category, users will enhance their research and increase their knowledge by accessing over 4.6 million photographs dating back to 1826 and as current as a few moments ago. Tens of thousands of graphics, more than 4,500 hours of audio files dating from the 1920's, and news stories and headlines dating from 1997 will allow the user to complete their research project with content as diverse as the project itself.

The content is primary source, and is provided by The Associated Press®. The AP has won more Pulitzer Prizes than any other news agency, and is the most credible source for non-biased reporting. Founded in 1848, the AP is the oldest and largest news organization in the world, and is an important part of modern-day world history, serving more than one billion people each day.

AP Images Quick Reference Guide

NOTE: The content tab which is currently selected will be highlighted by a red-orange bar above and below it as shown below.

AP Images

- All the images are located within the photo collection (even historical).
- Historical photos date from 1996 back to the 1800's.
- At times, major events may occur during a year such as the Olympics or Elections. These events are listed under the Event Spotlight list and are created on an as needed basis. Once major events are removed from the Event Spotlight list, the photos remain within the photo database.
- Once you click on Photos, you will see Showcases, Featured Events, Domestic New, International News, Financial News and Sports.

The showcases located at the top of the pages are usually requested by a library for an ongoing project. If you have an idea for a showcase, please contact us at: snee@accuweather.com

- Featured Events are timely, automatically built, image collections which highlight areas such as finance, weather, environment, sports, science/technology, health and medicine, and recent historical additions to the database.
- The showcases under each sub-category (Domestic New, International News, Financial News and Sports) change as they are the last 36 hours of current news going on in the world.
